Spokesman for mental health agency to retire

Staff report

Published: Wednesday, February 15, 2012 at 3:30 a.m.

MONTGOMERY | The public spokesman for the Department of Mental Health on Tuesday announced that he would retire effective May 1.

John Ziegler, public information officer for ADMH, said his last day in the office will be March 30. Ziegler said Anthony Thompson, executive assistant to mental health Commissioner Zelia Baugh, would take over his duties temporarily.

Ziegler said that the department planned to hire a new public information officer as soon as possible.
